

INTRODUCTION

The winter issue of the MCV QUARTERLY presents a departure from our usual symposium proceedings. We offer, instead, five full-length articles and two case reports that range from respiratory failure and the dental health of pre-Columbian Peruvians to a report of a rare clinical entity, an intrapulmonary lymph node presenting as a 'coin' lesion. We hope that our readers will find these papers interesting and informative.

THE EDITORS